Angel Rose, Video still from Ritual 1,
2012

Criss-cross your borders and hope to $urvive. We are in the schizo-tronic fallout from the detournable bloc-age. A harmonic wave of temporality and irrelevance drifts us ever so close to a future state. PASSPORT PLEASE!?!

REFUGEES UNITE! The inaugural HOME OFFICE OF THE FAN FICTION EMPIRE is open. Resplendent with works from over 20 visual ambassadors, it welcomes a spirited sociological approach to consumer culture-cum-borderline official media producer. Championing visual production and communication naturalised out of a DIY domestic authority, morphing completely in unimaginable ways. The H.O.F.F.E. asks the question of culture in the realm of its advancement in this hyper void.
